The Rank of Judges in the Court of Chancery

3. [Burroughs, Samuel (d.1761)].

The Legal Judicature in Chancery Stated. With Remarks on a Late Book, Intitled, A Discourse of the Judicial Authority Belonging to the Master of the Rolls in the High Court of Chancery. London: Printed for J. Walthoe, 1727. 282 pp. Lacking 4 pp. publisher catalogue. Octavo (8-1/2" x 5-1/4").

Contemporary calf, gilt frames to boards, rebacked and recornered in period style with gilt-edged raised bands and lettering piece to spine, gilt tooling to board edges, edges of text block rouged. Light rubbing to boards, moderate rubbing to extremities, front joint starting at ends, rear joint starting at head, light creasing to spine, which is chipped at head, corners bumped and lightly worn, hinges cracked, light foxing and faint offsetting to endleaves. Light toning to interior, negligible light foxing and soiling to several leaves, corrections in an early hand in a few places. $450.

* Only edition. This book is a response to a point in A Discourse of the Judicial Authority Belonging to the Office of Master of the Rolls in the High Court of Chancery (1727) by Philip Yorke, Earl of Hardwicke. Burroughs believes Yorke is incorrect when he stated that the Chancery court was directed by two judges that are not "co-ordinate, but in a subordination of one to the other" (3). Ultimately, Burroughs's view triumphed and the Master of the Rolls gained statutory independence.

Final Revisions to the 39 Articles

4. [Church of England].

Liber Quorundam Canonum Disciplinae Ecclesiae Anglicanae. Anno 1571. [London: Printed by John Day, 1571]. 23, [1] pp. Cancel slip affixed to p. 21. Quarto (6-3/4" x 5").

Recent three-quarter calf over marbled boards, blind fillets to boards, gilt title, gilt publication date and blind fillets to spine, endpapers renewed. Moderate toning to interior, faint dampstaining to several leaves, mostly to margins, cancel slip partially detached but secure. $1,250.

* First Latin printing. The Liber Quorundam of 1571 was the final set of revisions to the 39 Articles of Religion, the doctrinal foundation of the Church of England, U.S. Episcopal Church and the Anglican Church in North America, as well as congregations in the Anglican Communion and Anglican Continuum. Formulated as 10 articles in 1536, this body of laws attained its final form in 1571 under the direction of Queen Elizabeth. The Liber Quorundam concerns Articles 3 (De Episcopis), 5 (De Decanis Ecclesiarum), 8 (De Archidiaconis), 9 (De Cancellariis. &c.), 14 (De Aedituis Ecclesiarum), 19 (De Concionatoribus), 20 (De Residentia), 21 (De Pluralitatibus, De Ludimagistris) and 22 (De Patronis, &c.).

The ESTC records three variants of the 1571 issue. They are distinguished by the penultimate paragraph of leaf G3r (p. 21), which is the revised Article 21. Variant 1 is uncorrected. In Variant 2, our copy, the text is covered with a cancel slip adding additional content. Variant 3 has a corrected text. Not in Beale.

Coke's Reports, Part Seven, Which Includes Calvin's Case

5. Coke, Sir Edward [1552-1634].

La Sept Part des Reports Sr. Edw. Coke Chivaler, Chiefe Iustice del Common Banke: Des Divers Resolutions & Iudgements Done sur Solemne Arguments, & Avec Grand Deliberation & Conference des Tresreverend Iudges & Sages de la Ley, De Cases en ley Queux ne Fueront Unques Resolue ou Adiudges par Devant: Et les Raisons & Causes des Dits Resolutions & Iudgements. Publies en le Size An del Treshaut & Tresillustre Iaques Roy Dengl. Fr. & Irel. & de Escoce le 42. le Fountaine de Tout Pietie & Iustice, & la Vie de la Ley. London: Printed [by Adam Islip] for the Societie of Stationers, 1629. [vi], 28, 35, 37-45, [2] ff. Complete. First and final leaves blank. Folio (11" x 7").

Recent three-quarter calf over marbled boards, blind fillets to calf edges, gilt and blind fillets to spine, endpapers renewed. Negligible light rubbing to bottom-edge of boards. Moderate toning and faint dampstaining to interior, brief early annotations and manicules in one, possibly two early hands in several places, light soiling in a few places, small spark burn to leaf B5 without loss to legibility. $850.

* Second edition. Prefaces in Latin and English. Coke's Reports are not reports in the conventional sense, but highly detailed anthologies of precedents organized according to the cases they consider. In each instance Coke assembled a large body of cases, outlined their arguments, and explained the reasons for the judgment, using it as a basis for a statement of general principles. Taken together, the Reports form the most extensive and detailed treatment of common law pleading that had yet appeared. A work of immense authority, it was often cited as The Reports, there being no need to mention the author's name. Highlights of the seventh part are the preface, a response to criticism of his speech and charge at the Norwich assizes, and Calvin's Case, which helped to establish the rule of birthright citizenship. The annotations to our copy are mostly brief case citations and references to other reporters.

The Legal Side of an Ambitious Land-Reclamation Project

6. Cole, Charles Nalson [1723-1804]. [Bedford Level Corporation].

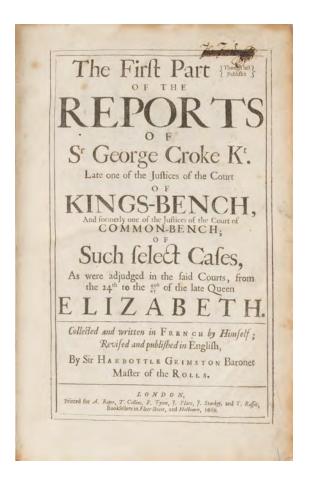

A Collection of Laws Which Form the Constitution of the Bedford Level Corporation; Together with an Introductory History Thereof. London: Printed by H. Woodfall and W. Strahan for C. Bathurst, 1761. [viii], lii, 576 pp. Octavo (8-1/4" x 4-3/4").

Contemporary speckled calf, rebacked in sheep retaining existing spine with gilt-edged raised bands and lettering piece, gilt tooling to board edges, edges speckled red. Light rubbing and a few minor scuffs to boards, moderate rubbing to extremities, somewhat heavier to joints, which are starting at head, corners bumped and somewhat worn, hinges cracked, faint offsetting to endleaves, armorial bookplate (of Lord Walsingham) to front pastedown, presentation inscription "From the Author" to front free endpaper, which is lightly edgeworn. Light toning to interior, occasional light foxing, faint dampstain to lower corner of first 50 or so leaves not affecting text, light soiling in a few places, brief annotations in ink to table of contents. $850.

* First edition. The Bedford Level Corporation was founded in 1663 to oversee the draining of the Fens of East Central England, facilitating agriculture in the area. It had extensive navigation and taxation rights in order to carry out its objectives. Cole was a member of the Inner Temple and the registrar of the Bedford Level Corporation. A second edition was published in 1803. OCLC locates 3 copies of the first edition in North American law libraries (Library of Congress, University of Georgia, University of Pennsylvania).

"A Work of Credit and Celebrity"

7. Croke, Sir George [1560-1642].

The First Part Though Last Publish't of the Reports of Sr George Croke Kt. Late One of the Justices of the Court of Kings-Bench, And Formerly One of the Justices of the Court of Common-Bench; Of Such Select Cases, As were Adjudged in the Said Courts, From the 24th to the 44th/45 of the Late Queen Elizabeth. Collected and Written in French by Himself; Revised and Published in English, By Sir Harbottle Grimston Baronet Master of the Rolls. London: Printed for A. Roper [et al.], 1669. [x], 472, 457-920, [70], [4] pp. Initial table bound at end, text complete. Lacking copperplate frontispiece. With a 3-pp. "Catalogue of Law-Books, and such as appertain to the Law" not noted by the ESTC. Folio (11-1/2" x 7-1/4").

Recent quarter calf over marbled boards, raised bands, blind fillets, lettering piece and gilt date to spine, endpapers renewed, early hand-lettered notation ("Eliz:") to fore-edge of text block. A few minor scratches and shallow scuffs to calf. Light toning to interior, occasional light foxing, minor faint dampstaining to edges in a few places, lower corners of a few leaves lacking without loss to text, small hole to text block of leaf 4L1 (pp. 625-626), no loss to legibility, early struck-through owner signature to title page. $350.

* Second edition in English. Issued in separate volumes beginning in 1657 and collected as a set in 1683, these reports were translated from Law-French and edited by Grimston. The First Part covers the 25th through 45th regnal years of Elizabeth I (1582-1602/3). Kent considered Croke's reports "a work of credit and celebrity among the old Reporters," which has "sustained its character in every succeeding age" (Wallace).

A Landmark Treatise on Justices of the Peace

8. Dalton, Michael.

The Countrey Justice: Containing the Practice of the Justices of the Peace Out of Their Sessions. Gathered for the Better Help of Such Justices of Peace, As Have Not Been Much Conversant in the Study of the Laws of This Realm. To Which is Now Added, The Duty and Power of Justices of Peace in Their Sessions; An Abridgement (Under Proper Titles) of All Statutes, Relating Thereunto. A Large Table of the Principal Matters Herein Contained. With Two Other Tables, One of the Chapters in This Book; And the Other of Such Acts of Parliament, As Concern the Office of a Justice of Peace. London: Printed by H. Sawbridge, S. Roycroft, And W. Rawlins, 1682. [xvi], 535, [31] pp. Folio (12-1/4" x 7-3/4").

Contemporary calf, rebacked and recornered in sheep with raised bands, blind fillets, blind ornaments, lettering piece and gilt institutional name and date to spine, endpapers renewed. Rubbing and scuffing to boards, small library stamp to front board, moderate rubbing to extremities, light wear to board edges, small chip to bottom edge of front board, corners bumped and lightly worn, library bookplate and circular sticker to front pastedown. Light toning to interior, light foxing, soiling and tiny spark burns in a few places, tears to edges of a few leaves (mended on leaf N5, pp. 141-142) without loss to text, ownership signatures (Clement? Ingleby and Jos. Ankers) to head of title page, later pencil annotations to pp. 516-517. $300.

* Later edition. This venerable justice of the peace manual went through some twenty editions between 1618 and 1746. This work is also significant because it firmly established the alphabetical topical structure adopted in later texts. Rooted in Crompton, Fitzherbert and Lambard, The Countrey Justice offers advice on such matters as buggery, customs, highways, prisons, riots, soldiers, murder, felonies, rogues and vagabonds, wool, and high treason.

Signed and Inscribed First Edition of Darrow's Farmington

9. Darrow, Clarence [1857-1938].

Farmington. Chicago: A.C. McClurg & Co., 1904. vi, 277 pp.

Cloth, arts-and-crafts style multi-color vignette and gilt title to front board, gilt title and black-stamped fillets to spine, top edge gilt, deckle fore and bottom edges. Light soiling to front board, light rubbing to extremities, spine ends and corners lightly bumped and very lightly worn. Title page with large engraved vignette printed in red and black. Toning, internally clean. Inscribed and signed by Darrow: "Inscribed to E C Lampin? / from an old time friend of / his father & family / with the best wishes of / Clarence Darrow / Jefferson O. May 7th 1928" in bold hand to front free endpaper. $1,000.

* First edition. Farmington is a fictionalized account of the author's youth in Ohio. Though it went through seven editions, it was never a critical or commercial success. This pained Darrow because he thought it was his finest book.

A Guide to Criminal Law for Justices of the Peace

10. Davis, Daniel [1762-1835].

A Practical Treatise Upon the Authority and Duty of Justices of the Peace in Criminal Prosecutions. Boston: Cummings, Hilliard & Co., 1824. iv, 687 pp. Octavo (9-1/2" x 5" x 6").

Orignal publisher's boards with recent cloth rebacking, gilt title to spine, untrimmed edges, endpapers renewed. Moderate rubbing and a few minor stains to boards, corners bumped somewhat worn. Moderate toning to interior, light foxing in a few places, early owner signature of Bezaleel Taft, Jr. to head of title page. $150.

* First edition. Davis was the United States Attorney for the Maine District of Massachusetts, Solicitor General of Massachusetts and the author of several legal treatises. This work is a valuable manual of criminal law. Though it pertains mostly to the laws of Massachusetts, it is a useful guide to criminal laws concerning Justices of the Peace in other states. Taft [1780-1846] was a lawyer, politician and Massachusetts State Senator from the distinguished family that produced nearly five generations of judges and politicians, among them William Howard Taft [1857-1930].

Light rubbing and a few small scuffs, scratches and stains to boards, moderate rubbing to extremities, slightly heavier to joints and raised bands, head of spine mended, small nick near head of rear joint, which is just starting at foot, corners bumped and lightly worn, pastedowns loose exposing printer's waste, extensive manuscript index to rear endleaves (and final leaf of text), creasing, faint offsetting and light soiling to rear pastedown, which has a small tear to its fore-edge. Moderate toning to interior, light soiling in a few places, early underlining and brief annotations throughout, most in a single hand. $2,000.

* Later edition. First published in 1585, Dyer's Ascuns Novel Cases, generally known as Dyer's Reports, contain cases heard in the Courts of Common Pleas, King's Bench, Exchequer and Chancery from 1513 to 1582. One of the first publications of its kind, it was also the first to be referred to regularly as "Reports." A work of great authority (second only to that of the Year Books), it went through six editions in Law-French, the last one in 1688. The annotations to our copy, most in a single early hand, are primarily case citations and references to other reporters with a few brief glosses.

"Collected by Very Good Hands, And Lately Re-Viewed, Examined, And Approved of by the Late Learned Justice Godbolt."

14. Godbolt, John [d. 1648]. Hughes, William [1587 or 1588-1663?], Editor.

Reports of Certain Cases, Arising in the Severall Courts of Record at Westminster; In the Raignes of Q. Elizabeth, K. James, And the Late King Charles. With the Resolutions of the Judges of the Said Courts, Upon Debate and Solemn Arguments. Collected by Very Good Hands, And Lately Re-Viewed, Examined, And Approved of by the Late Learned Justice Godbolt. And Now Published by W: Hughes of Grays-Inne Esquire. With Two Tables, One of the Cases, The Other of the Principall Matter Therein Contain'd. London: Printed by T.N. for W. Lee, D. Parkman, and Gabriell Bedell, 1652. [viii], 451, [13]. Quarto (8-1/4" x 6-1/4").

Recent period-style three-quarter calf over marbled boards, lettering piece, gilt fillets and gilt publication date to spine, "Godbolt" in early hand to fore-edge of text block, endpapers renewed. Light fading to spine, corners very lightly bumped, a bit of worming to top-edge of text block. Light browning and faint dampspotting to interior, spark burns and tiny inkstains to a few leaves, clean tears to title page and following leaf, owner inscription to title page and a few other leaves in small early hand. $250.

* Only edition. "Though called Judge Godbolt's Reports, this person seems only to have been the owner of the Ms. from which the work was printed. (...) I do not suppose them to be all by the same hand. As I have seen no judicial criticism of this book, I content myself with noting that a reputable text-writer, Mr. Bingham, speaks of it as 'a respectable authority'." (Wallace). This work was reissued in 1653.

Precursor to Peel's Acts

17. [Hammond, Anthony (1758-1838)].

The Criminal Code. Game Laws. London: Printed by George Eyre and Andrew Strahan, 1828. Various pagings. Folio (13-1/4" x 8-1/2").

Contemporary three-quarter sheep over paper-covered boards, rebacked in morocco, blind fillets and gilt title, publication date and library name to spine, untrimmed edges. Moderate rubbing, a few faint stains to boards, corners bumped and somewhat worn, hinges cracked. Light toning to interior, light foxing to a few leaves, small library stamp to title page. $650.

* Only edition. Hammond, a barrister and legal reformer, was commissioned by Parliament, under the sponsorship of Home Secretary Sir Robert Peel [1788-1850], to propose a code of English criminal law. Between 1823 and 1829 he produced a series of six codes under the general title The Criminal Code. Although they weren't adopted, they formed the basis of Peel's Acts, the first substantial reform of English criminal law. In turn, Peel's acts paved the way for the Criminal Law Consolidation Acts 1861. Printed in limited numbers for Parliament, courts and select members of the legal community, copies of these codes (and complete sets) are scarce today. OCLC locates 1 copy of the Game Code (National Library of Scotland).

The Aftermath of a Dramatic Estate Case

20. [House of Lords].

Minutes of the Proceedings Before the Lords Committees for Privileges, On the Claim to the Title of Earl of Anglesey. [Dublin: S.n.], Printed in the Year 1771. 64 pp. Octavo (7-1/4" x 4-3/4").

Stab-stitched pamphlet in marbled wrappers. Faint vertical fold line, light rubbing to wrappers, moderate rubbing to spine, which has a few small tears, lower corners of wrappers and first and final several leaves folded. Light toning, date of printing corrected to 1772 in an early hand, internally clean. $650.

* Only edition. In 1741, James Annesley appeared in England with a sensational claim: at the age of 12, his uncle Richard Annesley had him kidnapped and shipped to a Delaware plantation. In his absence, Richard succeeded to the title of Earl of Anglesey. James escaped and returned to Ireland to claim his title. His ejectment claim was successful and the estates returned to him, but he did not obtain his title before his death in 1761. After his death, Richard's widow Anne attempted to retain the title of Countess of Anglesey for herself and her daughters, but her claim was denied by the House of Lords. OCLC and the ESTC locate 5 copies of this title, 2 in North America (Columbia, Huntington Library).

"One of the Great Pleasures of the Legal Bibliophile"

21. Jacobsen, Frederick J. [1774-1822]. Frick, William [1790-1855], Translator.

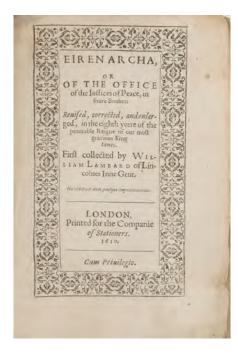

Laws of the Sea, With Reference to Maritime Commerce, During Peace and War. From the German by William Frick. Baltimore: Published by Edward J. Coale, 1818. xxxv, 636 pp. Octavo (8-1/4" x 5-1/4").

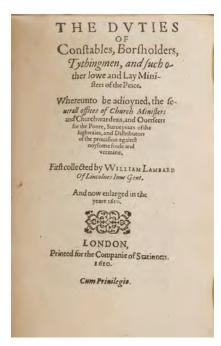

Later cloth, gilt title to spine, endpapers renewed. Light soiling, moderate rubbing to extremities, library bookplate and small shelf label to front pastedown. Moderate toning to interior, offsetting and negligible light edgewear to preliminaries and rear endleaves, library stamps to title page and a few other leaves. $250.

* First English-language edition and the only American edition. Originally published in 1815, Marvin spoke highly of this work in his Legal Bibliography, noting that few have equaled his wide range of research and depth of learning. As late as 1921, G.L. Canfield, writing in the Michigan Law Review, called this work "one of the pleasures of the legal bibliophile" that "remain[s] essential today to a practitioner's library" (19:580-582). Jacobsen, a German jurist, was an internationally recognized authority on maritime law. Laws of the Sea is based on a sixteen-year study of the laws of Italy, France, Great Britain, Holland, Denmark and Germany. It remains the most thorough single-volume study of English and continental maritime law in the early nineteenth century, a turbulent era shaped by the French Revolution and Napoleon.

Whereunto be Adioyned, The Severall Offices of Church Ministers and Churchwardens, And Overseers for the Poore, Surveyours of the Highwaies, And Distributors of the Provision Against Noysome Foule and Vermine. First Collected by William Lambard and Now Enlarged in the Yeare 1610. London: Printed for the Companie of Stationers, 1610. 94 pp. Lacking final two blank leaves.

Octavo (6-1/2" x 4-1/4"). Contemporary flexible vellum with yapp edges, faint early hand-lettered title to spine, thongholes, one with a thong fragment, to fore-edges. Light rubbing and a few tiny stains to boards, moderate rubbing and soiling to extremities, light soiling and edgewear to endleaves, pastedowns loose, lower corner lacking from front pastedown. Light toning to interior, light soiling to title page and a few other leaves, head-lines of a few leaves affected by trimming with no loss to legibility. $950.

* First published in 1581, Eirenarcha is esteemed for its comprehensive and systematic account of the organization of local government under the justices of the peace at the end of the sixteenth century. It was the standard authority for many years and often reprinted. Like many books of its kind, Eirenarcha offers fascinating insights into the society that produced it. This is evident in the detailed indictments for such offenses as murder via witchcraft, raping a child or maid (the age of distinction was ten), hearing a Catholic Mass, practicing usury and operating a bowling alley. First published in 1582, Duties of Constables is a companion work.

First Edition of a Standard Nineteenth-Century Evidence Treatise

24. Peake, Thomas [1771-1838].

A Compendium of the Law of Evidence. London: Printed for E. & R. Brooke & J. Rider, 1801. xiv, 190, [2] pp. Includes 2 pp. publisher advertisement. Octavo (8-1/4" x 5-1/4").

Recent quarter plain calf over marbled boards, endpapers renewed with old paper. Corners lightly rubbed and bumped, rear hinge starting. Light browning to interior, offsetting to margins of preliminaries and final leaves, early owner inscriptions and (illegible) signatures to front endleaf and head of title page, brief inscription (A.B Story's 1804) to head of p.1. An attractive copy. $450.

* First edition. Peake's was the standard treatise in the first decades of the nineteenth century, both in England and America. Its final English edition was published in 1822 and the final two American editions in 1824 and 1899. The first edition is scarce. OCLC locates 7 copies of the first edition in North American law libraries (Dalhousie, Loyola, Notre Dame, Temple, University of Florida, University of Pennsylvania, Yale).

London: Printed for the Companie of Stationers, 1610. [i], 403-562, 562-565, [4], 15; 4 ff.

Small folio (11" x 7-1/4"). Contemporary calf, blind rules to boards, raised bands, blind fillets and hand-lettered label to spine. Light rubbing, faint dampstaining, several small wormholes and a few nicks and scratches to boards, moderate rubbing to extremities, spine ends and corners mended, corners bumped, front endleaves lacking, rear pastedown loose and lightly creased with a small hole near upper right corner. Titles printed within elaborate woodcut architectural borders, woodcut decorated initials. Light toning to interior, negligible light foxing and soiling to a few leaves, minor worming to bottom-edge of last 75 or so leaves of Part II, text not affected, fold lines to corners of a few leaves, early annotation to head of Part I title page, which is lightly soiled, underlining and brief early annotations to several leaves in each part. $2,000.

* First published in 1571 and covering the period of 1550-1580, Plowden's Reports marks the transition away from the cumulative method of Year Books to one based on exposition and commentary. In most respects it is a forerunner of the modern law report. Plowden, a Catholic, achieved a great professional reputation and was esteemed as one of the most learned lawyers of his time. He became an M.P. during Queen Mary's reign, but was gradually pushed out of public life after Queen Elizabeth's accession due to his religion. His reports retained their standing, however, and were often translated and reprinted. Coke held them in high regard. Wallace says "In every sort of professional excellence [they] rank among the best Reports of any age." The annotations to our copy are brief case citations and references to other reporters (mostly Coke).

Only English-Language Edition of an Important Work by Savigny

26. Savigny, Frederick Charles von [1779-1861]. Hayward, Abraham [1801-1884], Translator.

Of the Vocation of Our Age for Legislation and Jurisprudence. London: Littlewood, [1831]. ix, [9]-192 pp. Octavo (8-1/4" x 5-1/2").

Nineteenth-century three-quarter sheep over textured cloth, raised bands, blind fillets and lettering piece to spine. Light rubbing and soiling to boards, moderate rubbing to extremities with some wear to spine ends and corners, hinges cracked, spot of label residue to front pastedown. Moderate toning to interior, early underlining, marks and brief annotations in faint pencil in a few places, faint, gradually diminishing, staining to upper-outside corners of several leaves at the beginning and end of text block, light soiling to title page. $350.

* Only edition in English. Written in the wake of the Napoleonic Wars and the Congress of Vienna in 1814, this book was, as noted by Walker, "an attack on the code system imposed on much of Europe by Napoleon and....the advocacy by Thibaut of a German Code. He attacked the demand for a code on the grounds that it was impracticable, adequate juristic preparation being impossible and the German language being juridically underdeveloped, and that existing codes were unsuccessful."

"Very Sensible and Generally Accurate"

27. Theobald, William [1798-1870].

A Practical Treatise on the Law of Principal and Surety, Particularly with Relation to Mercantile Guaranties, Bills of Exchange, And Bail Bonds. London: S. Sweet, 1832. [ii], xviii, 297 pp. With initial advertisement leaf. Octavo (9" x 5-1/2").

Original paper-covered publisher's boards, printed label to spine, edges untrimmed. Light rubbing to boards, front board separated but secured by cords, moderate rubbing to extremities, large chip to head of spine, rear joint starting at foot, ownership signature (of Edward Astoll?) dated 1840 to front pastedown. Light toning to interior, very light foxing and soiling in a few places. $350.

* Only London edition. A review of this treatise cited by Marvin states: "Mr. Theobald is a very sensible and generally accurate author." Four American editions were published in 1832 and 1834 (Philadelphia) and 1836 (Philadelphia, New York).

Incest and Murder in Edinburgh

28. [Trial]. Nairn, Katharine, Defendant. Ogilvie, Patrick [d.1765], Defendant.

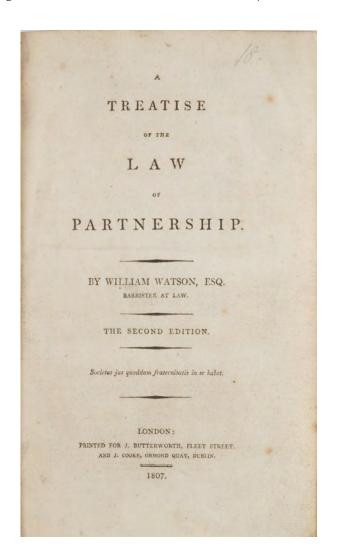

The Trial of Katharine Nairn and Patrick Ogilvie, For the Crimes of Incest and Murder. Containing the Whole Procedure of the High Court of Judiciary, Upon the 5th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, And 16th Days of August 1765. Edinburgh Printed: London: Reprinted, For T. Becket and P.A. de Hondt, 1765. [vii], 134 pp. Octavo (7-1/2" x 4-1/2").

Later library cloth, gilt title and publication date to spine, endpapers renewed. Light shelfwear, later owner bookplate (Stoughton R. Vogel) to front pastedown. Moderate toning to interior, page numbers affected in a few places by trimming, faint stain to pp. 40-41, soiling to half-title, "2" in early hand to heads of half-title and title pages, manuscript table of contents in early hand to foot of p. 134. $650.

* Only London edition, published the same year of the only Edinburgh edition. In January 1765, 19-year-old Katharine Nairn married 40-year-old Thomas Ogilvie. She soon fell in love with his younger brother, Patrick. In June the same year, Thomas Ogilvie died after a sudden illness. Katharine and Patrick were arrested and convicted of murder by poisoning. Patrick Ogilvie was hanged, but Katharine's execution was delayed when she was found to be pregnant. Placed in a lower-security section of the prison, she took an opportunity to escape and fled to France. She was never apprehended. This case was the subject of a volume in the Notable British Trials series edited by William Roughead.

13 Year Books of Henry VI, Years 1-20

30. [Year Books].

Henry VI [1421-1471], King of England.

De Termino Michaelis Anno Regni Regis Henrici Sexti Primo. [London: Imprynted...In Fletestrete within Temple barre at the signe of the Hand and starre, by Rychard Tottyl, Anno. 1570]. viii ff.

[Bound with]

[12 Year Books of Henry VI, Years 2-20]. [London: Richard Tottell, 1567-1574]. Collates complete.

Contemporary paneled calf, central blind arabesques, holes for ties or catches at fore-edges, rebacked and recornered in period style with raised bands, blind fillets and lettering piece to spine, endpapers renewed. Light rubbing, scuffing, faint dampstaining and a few small holes to boards, moderate rubbing to board edges, corners bumped and lightly worn, (illegible) ink annotation to fore-edge of text block, hinges cracked, faint offsetting to endpapers, later owner name (William Humfrys) and ink and pencil "4" to front pastedown. Moderate toning to interior, annotations and underlining in ink in a (likely single) early hand to most leaves, very light foxing and soiling in a few places, small holes or missing corners to a few leaves without loss to text or annotations. An impressive collection. $8,500.

* Covers regnal years 1 to 20 of Henry VI. It is difficult to overestimate the importance of the Year Books, the primary body of early English court reports. A cornerstone of the common law, they are also a primary source for our knowledge of law in medieval England and useful documents of contemporary English life, customs and manners. The origin of the Year Books is unknown. Some scholars believe they originated as collections of notes taken by law students in court for study. Holdsworth maintains they were made by lawyers for personal use. Though it is not known when the first manuscript volumes were compiled, the cases in all known examples are from the 1270's to 1535. Printed editions of the Year Books were first issued by William de Machlinia between 1481 and 1482. Our volume contains titles from the so-called "quarto edition," a series of volumes issued by various printers from 1522 to 1619.
