Exceptional Copy of an Early American Edition of Beccaria

3. Beccaria, [Cesare Bonesana, Marchese de] [1738-1794]. Sharpe, Granville [1735-1813].

Rousseau, Jean-Jacques [1712-1778].

An Essay on Crimes and Punishments. Written by the Marquis Beccaria of Milan. With a Commentary Attributed to Monsieur De Voltaire. Philadelphia: Printed by R. Bell, 1778. [iv], 352, [4] pp. Includes one-page publisher list. Three works in one with continuous pagination. The second work, preceded by a half-title and title page is Sharpe's Remarks on the Opinions of Some of the Most Celebrated Writers on Crown Law, Respecting the Due Distinction Between Manslaughter and Murder, the third, with a drophead title, is J.J. Rousseau, Citizen of Geneva, His Opinion on Duelling. Octavo (7-1/2" x 4-1/2").

Recent period-style calf by Philip Dusel, blind rules to boards, raised bands and lettering piece to spine, endpapers renewed, upper corner and chip to foot of title page restored, leaves washed. Light toning, slightly heavier in places, faint spotting to a few leaves. An exceptional copy. $4,500.

* With a table of authorities and cases. Dei Delitti e Delle Pene (1764) was the first systematic study of the principles of crime and punishment. Infused with the spirit of the Enlightenment, its advocacy of crime prevention and the abolition of torture and capital punishment marked a significant advance in criminological thought, which had changed little since the medieval era. It had a profound influence on the development of criminal law. It was especially influential among American thinkers, who saw Beccaria as a source of enlightened ideas to reform English common law. Though a matter of some debate, the first American edition was published in Charleston, SC, in 1777. (Earlier American imprints, including one printed in New York in 1773, are ghosts). With a Warm Inscription by Burger

5. Burger, Warren E. [1907-1995].

Significant Supreme Court Opinions of the Honorable Warren E. Burger, Chief Justice of the United States. Manila: The Philippine Bar Association, 1984. [x], 875 pp. Portrait frontispiece.

Original cloth, light rubbing to extremities, faint crease to front board, presentation inscription by Burger to J. Edward Lumbard to front free endpaper, comment by Burger to preface. $450.

* Only edition. The inscription reads: "For my uncommon/ friend & colleague/ Hon. J. Edward Lumbard/ with warm memories/ of our work/ together/ Warren E Burger/ P.S. This is a sure cure/ for insomnia!" A line in the preface stating that Burger selected the contents of the book is followed by a manuscript comment in the margin by Burger: "No. A committee did it!" Burger was the 15th Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, serving from 1969 to 1986. Lumbard [1901-1999], a distinguished politically connected lawyer and prosecutor, was a judge, later chief judge and senior judge, of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit from 1955 until the end of his life. Cardozo's Copy of One of His Most Important Books

6. Cardozo, Benjamin N. [1870-1938].

The Paradoxes of Legal Science. New York: Columbia University Press, 1928. v, 142, [1] pp.

Original cloth, gilt title to spine, blind frames to boards, gilt Columbia University Press crest to center of front board. Light rubbing to extremities, Cardozo memorial bookplate to front pastedown, unsigned inscription in pencil, apparently in Cardozo's hand, to front free endpaper, light toning to text. $2,500.

* First edition. One of Cardozo's most important books, The Paradoxes of Legal Science is a classic statement of juristic pragmatism. As Goodhart points out, it also reveals the non-legal sources, such as Greek philosophy, that informed his work. The bookplate was commissioned by Judge Irving Lehman, Cardozo's executor and close friend, to mark the books from Cardozo's library that were bequeathed to him. The inscription reads: "To the dear, dear Mother From the one who owes everything to her and loves her as befits the debt." The handwriting appears to be Cardozo's, but we cannot identify the "dear, dear Mother." It cannot be Cardozo's mother; she died when he was a child. Written to Clear the Names of Suspected Nantucket Bank Robbers

7. Coffin, William. Gardner, Albert.

A Narrative of the Robbery of the Nantucket Bank. Compiled from Original Documents. Nantucket, MA: Printed by Henry Clapp, 1816. 69 pp. Octavo (8-1/4" x 4-3/4").

Stab-stitched pamphlet bound into nineteenth-century three-quarter calf over marbled boards, small calf title panel to front board, spine covered in later cloth tape. Light rubbing to boards, moderate rubbing to board edges with wear to corners, bookplate of Benjamin DeForest Curtiss to front pastedown and verso of front free endpaper, rear hinge cracked, another crack between front endleaf and title page, which is soiled. Moderate toning to text, occasional dampstaining to margins, light foxing to a few leaves. $1,250.

* Only edition. This pamphlet concerns the case Rice et Al. v. Commonwealth of Massachusetts. "Compiled to clear the names of Rice and several other citizens of Nantucket who had been tried for the bank robbery and acquitted, but who were still under suspicion by fellow townsmen. Page vii refers to the trial, but the court in which it took place is not given. Randall Rice was one of the defendants named in the narrative. Also mentioned are three defendants who were arrested but escaped from prison before being tried: John Clark, Jr., Zebulon Witherby, and one Johnson" (Cohen). 1859 Licence Granted to a Female Bookseller in Meung-sur-Loire, France

9. [France].

[Female Booksellers].

[Bookseller Licence Granted to Thérèse Grizon During the Reign of Napoleon III]. Paris, February 14, 1859.

13-3/4" x 17-3/4" part-printed parchment document, text within woodcut architectural border, imperial crest at head of document. Vertical and horizontal fold lines, contemporary inkstands and endorsements in small neat hands. $650.

* Established by decree on February 5, 1810, the Directorate of Printing and Bookstores established France's first modern system to regulate printed materials and their distribution. People in the trade were required to hold a licence, which was granted after a formal investigation into an applicant's personal, political and financial background and the taking of an oath to observe censorship laws.

Our licence was granted to Thérèse Grizon, "the widow Trousseau." Born in 1806, she ran a bookstore in Meung-sur-Loire. A former grocer, she was 53 when her licence was granted. She was active as a bookseller, specializing in religious and educational publications, to around 1879. The document is signed by the Head of the Printing, Bookstore and Press Division. It bears the stamp of the printing office, the Orleans district court and the imperial stamp. Obtaining the patent was followed by an oath. A note in the right corner of the document that: "The lady Grizon (Thérèse) widow Trousseau took the oath prescribed by law at the public civil academy of the chamber of vocations of the court of first instance of Orleans on September 24 1859." A Scarce Sixteenth-Century Treatise on Suretyship

10. Francus, Valentin.

Tractatus de Fideiussoribus, Tum ad Ius Commune, Tum Saxonicum Aaccommodatus: Unà cum Indice Omnium Materiarum Scitu Dignarum Locupletissimo. Leipzig: Impensis Henningi Grosii Bibliopolae, 1594. [8] Bl., [xvi], 510, [59] pp. Quarto (7-1/4" x 6").

Contemporary paneled pigskin, raised bands and early hand-lettered title to spine, bronze clasps and catches. Light soiling, some worm holes and a few minor gouges to boards, moderate rubbing to extremities with some wear to corners, front joint just starting at head, cracks in text block between front free endpaper and title page and rear free endpaper and final leaf of text. Light browning to text, occasional faint dampstaining to text block, mostly to margins, minor worming and light edgewear to preliminaries, final leaves of text and rear endleaves, some soiling and struck-through early owner signature to title page, bookplate residue to verso. $2,000.

* First edition. This treatise examines suretyship (guarantee by a third party) in Roman, canon and Saxon contract law. Little is known about Francus. The book appears to have been well-received because it had two more editions in 1599, 1600. All are scarce. OCLC locates no copies of any edition in North America. Signed by Frankfurter

11. Frankfurter, Felix [1882-1965].

Mr. Justice Holmes and The Supreme Court. Cambridge: Harvard University Press, 1938. [viii], 137 pp. Portrait frontispiece.

Original cloth, blind frames to boards, gilt title to spine. A few minor scratches to baords, light rubbing to extremities, light toning to interior. "Felix Frankfurter" in bold hand to front free endpaper, presentation inscription "To Hn. Wm. H. Hill" in someone else's hand, signed with an illegible signature, to front pastedown. $750.

* Mr. Justice Holmes is Frankfurter's finest statements of his admiration for Holmes. This and other books did much to establish Holmes's posthumous reputation. The "Hn. Wm. H. Hill" is probably William Henry Hill [1876-1972], a prominent New York Republican politician and newspaper publisher. Order This Item

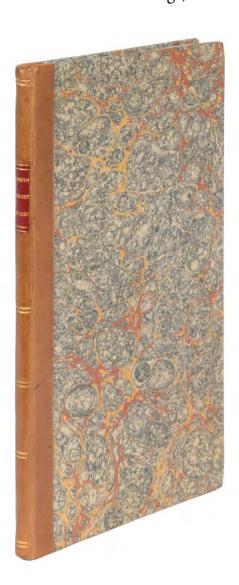

Gilbert on Civil Actions and the English Constitution

12. Gilbert, Sir Geoffrey [1674-1726].

The History and Practice of Civil Actions, Particularly In the Court of Common Pleas. Being an Historical Account of the Parts and Order of Judicial Proceedings, Viz. Writs, Appearances, Bail, Declarations, Pleadings, Issues, Trials, Verdicts, Judgments, Error and Costs; With the Several Changes Introduced into These Proceedings and Practice by the Several Statutes of Amendments, Jeofails, And Costs: And Containing a General Account of the Principles of Special-Pleading in All Civil Suits: With an Introduction, On the Constitution of England. Carefully Corrected from the Errors in the Former Impression, With the Addition of Many Notes and References. London: Printed by His Majesty's Law Printers, 1779. [380] pp. Star-paged to the previous edition (1761). Octavo (8" x 5").

Godwin Denounces the Dangerous Precedent Set by a Recent Sedition Trial

13. [Godwin, William (1756-1836)].

Cursory Strictures on The Charge Delivered by Lord Chief Justice Eyre to the Grand Jury, October 2, 1794. First published in the Morning Chronicle October 21. London: Printed for and Sold by D.I. Eaton, 1794. 31, [1] pp. Includes one-page publisher list.

Stab-stitched pamphlet bound into recent period-style quarter calf over marbled boards (by Philip Dusel). Light toning to interior, faint dampspotting to a few leaves. $950.

* Only edition, one of three issues from 1794. This pamphlet is a commentary on the recent sedition trial of Maurice Margarot, one of the founding members of the London Corresponding Society, a radical group organized to demand parliamentary reform in the late eighteenth century. Victims of a wave of anti-French hysteria initiated by the French Revolution, he and four other radicals (later known as the "Scottish Martyrs to Liberty") were convicted and transported to Australia in May 1794. Godwin, the notable English social critic and anarchist, denounced these trials and forcefully argued that the prosecution's concept of "constructive treason" allowed a judge to construe any behaviour as treasonous. His pamphet initiated a response from Francis Buller, a puisne judge of King's Bench and Eyre's subordinate, which Godwin answered in another pamphlet. English Short-Title Catalogue N26623. A Treatise on Inheritance and Succession

Derived from the Manuscript of Hale's History and Analysis

14. [Hale, Matthew (1609-1676)]. [Shower, Sir Bartholomew (1658-1701), Editor].

De Successionibus apud Anglos: Or, A Treatise of Hereditary Descents, Shewing the Rise, Progress and Successive Alterations Thereof. And Also the Laws of Descent as They are Now in Use. London: Printed and are to be Sold by A. Baldwin, 1700. [viii], 104 pp. Folding table (of descents). Octavo (6-1/4" x 4-1/2").

Contemporary speckled calf, rebacked in period style with raised bands and lettering piece. Minor worming and a few minor nicks and scuffs to board, moderate rubbing to board edges with some wear to corners, hinges cracked, some edgewear to preliminaries. Moderate toning, occasional faint spotting and dampstaining. Early owner initials to head of dedication leaf, annotations to front pastedown and a few other leaves. $850.

* First edition. This work is derived from the manuscript of Hale's History of the Common Law of England, which was first published in 1713. Shower edited the text liberally and added some original material, most notably the folding table, "A Scheme of Pedigrees." With a few exceptions, the manuscript annotations in our copy are references to statutes, cases and Littleton's Tenures. The first edition was reissued twice in 1700; a second edition followed in 1735. English Short-Title Catalogue R14823. Order This Item

A Significant Work on the Right to Trial by Jury

15. Hawles, Sir John [1645-1716]. [Bacon, Francis (1561-1626)].

The Englishman's Right: A Dialogue Between a Barrister at Law, and a Juryman; Plainly Setting Forth, I. The Antiquity, II. The Excellent Designed Use, III. The Office and Just Privileges of Juries, By the Law of England. London: Printed for Tho. Wotton, 1732. viii, 52 pp. Octavo (8-1/2" x 5-1/2").

Disbound stab-stitched pamphlet, untrimmed edges. Moderate toning, light soiling to exterior, light browning to margins of title page, illegible signature in miniscule hand to head of title page. $500.

* Second edition of a work first published in 1680. This edition with a preface 'To The Bookseller' by 'J.K.' A staunch Whig, Hawles wrote The Englishman's Right to outline the rights, duties and proper behavior of a juryman and to promote the jury system as a bulwark against tyranny. Immediately successful among Whigs and others who saw themselves as defenders of English liberties, it was received with great enthusiasm in America, where it was reprinted several times well into the nineteenth century. English Short-Title Catalogue T106583. ### A Digest of Statute Law for Laymen by Giles Jacob with Contemporary Annotations

18. Jacob, Giles [1686-1744].

The Statute-Law Common-Plac'd: Or, A Second Table to the Statutes. Containing the Purport and Effect of All the Acts of Parliament in Force from Magna Charta Down to the Reign of King George, In a Method Perfectly New and Regular; With the Numerous Proviso's and Additional Clauses Inserted Under Their Proper Titles. The Whole Very Useful to Counsellors, Attornies, Solicitors, Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Coroners, Clergymen, Merchants, And All Trading Persons. [London]: Printed by E. and R. Nutt, and R. Gosling, 1730. [xi], v, 220, [4] pp. Octavo (7-1/2" x 4-3/4").

Contemporary paneled calf, raised bands and lettering piece to spine, blind tooling to board edges. Light rubbing and some minor nicks and scuffs to boards, moderate rubbing to extremities, rear hinge jut starting at head, small chip to foot of spine, corners bumped and lightly worn, front hinge cracked. Moderate toning to text, contemporary annotations, some quite extensive, to several leaves. $450.

* Second edition. Prefaced by an essay on Magna Carta, this book is an alphabetically arranged digest of statutes concerning a wide array of topics, such as bail, bankrupts, baron and feme, courts, dower, gaming, oaths and witchcraft. Reaching its fifth and final editon in 1748, it was first published in 1719 as a companion to his Review of the Statutes...With an Exact Table to the Whole (1713). (This is why the title says "A Second Table"). Possibly written by a justice of the peace, the annotations provide additional information, clarify vague points and note modifications from later legislation. English Short-Title Catalogue T137467. Eight tipped-in manuscript leaves, 8-page printed document laid in. Folio (12-3/4" x 7-3/4").

Recent three-quarter calf over marbled boards, raised bands and black and gilt fillets to spine, gilding rubbed away from title, endpapers—added, adjacent original endleaves retained. Light rubbing to extremities, some fading to spine, front free endpaper and adjacent endleaf partially detached. Title page printed in red and black. Light toning to interior, faint dampstaining and soiling in a few places, clean tear to leaf zz2 (pp. 179-180) with no loss to text, short tears to plates. Underlining of words and phrases and tick marks to margins, mostly in pencil, throughout text, brief annotations in ink to endleaves and index, all in early hands, recent repair to foot of one of the manuscript leaves, one detached, another partially detached but secure, light soiling to title page, short clean tear to its fore-edge, illegible early owner signature to its upper right-hand corner. $850.

* Only edition, one of two issues from 1702. "It is a most valuable collection of mediaeval charters, which is indispensable to historians of mediaeval conveyancing" (Holdsworth). The tipped-in leaves are manuscript copies of declarations of evidence and titles. The laid-in printed document is titled Brief for the Counsel of John Borthwick, Esq; of Crookston, Claiming the Title and Dignity of Lord Borthwick. These documents and, presumably, the annotations relate to the Borthwicks. An annotation on the verso of the Brief reads "my Father possesses the Land of Crookston-also-Nettlefleet [illegible] and [illegible]." An Appealing Copy of an Uncommon Volume of Exchequer Reports

23. Parker, Thomas [1695?-1784], Reporter.

Reports of Cases Concerning the Revenue, Argued and Determined in the Court of Exchequer, From Easter Term 1743, To Hilary Term 1767. With an Appendix, Containing Cases Upon the Same Subject in Former Reigns. With Two Tables; The One of the Names of the Cases, The Other of the Principal Matters. London: Printed by W. Strahan and M. Woodfall, 1776. v, [iii], 283, [13] pp. Folio (12-1/4" x 7-3/4").

Recent period-style quarter calf over marbled boards, raised bands and lettering piece to spine, endpapers renewed. Light fading to boards near top-edges, moderate toning to text, light foxing in a few places. Early owner signature (Wm. Ritson) to front endleaf, brief annotations in his hand to a few leaves. $350.

* First edition. An important and uncommon set of Exchequer reports. Thomas Parker (not to be confused with Sir Thomas Parker, 1666?-1732, first Earl of Macclesfield and Lord Chancellor) served as chief baron of the Court of Exchequer for some 30 years; these are his own reports of his decisions. "He published these reports he tells us, because there were few cases in print in which the law relating to revenue was explained. To these cases (1743-1767) he added some others decided (...) between 1678 and 1718" (Holdsworth). There were also octavo editions in 1791 and 1800. Wallace says this work is "valuable and accurate." Our copy of this title belonged to the Earls of Macclesfield. Housed in Shirbirn Castle, near Watlington, Oxfordshire, it was one of the finest private libraries in Great Britain. Regulating Public Behavior in Nineteenth-Century Verona

24. [Police]. [Verona, Italy].

Regolamento Disciplinare Per La Polizia Delle Strade Camminapiedi Ornato EC. [Verona]: S.n., [1822]. 22 pp. Octavo (8" x 5-1/2").

Stab-stitched pamphlet in plain thick-paper wrappers. Light soiling and a few minor stains to exterior, light toning to interior, upper corners of most leaves dog-eared, light foxing to a few leaves. $500.

* A curious set of rules for Verona's street police that reflects official anxieties about specific public behavior. Its articles detail actions and penalties for offences ranging from interference with the public lighting system and the addition of unauthorized embellishments to repair work to the disposal of burning embers into a street. This appears to an unrecorded imprint. No copies located on OCLC or other online sources. Order This Item

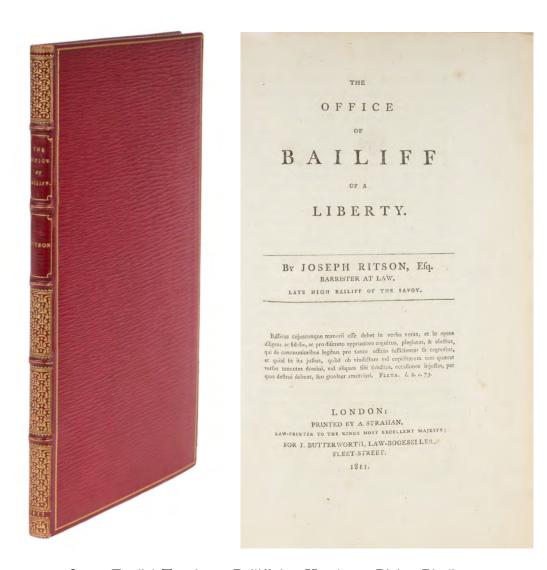

Quality of Life Issues in Seventeenth-Century London

25. [Real Property]. [Great Britain].

A Briefe Declaration for What Manner of Speciall Nusance Concerning Private Dwelling Houses, A Man May Have His Remedy by Assise, Or Other Action as the Case Requires. Unfolded in the Arguments, And Opinions of Foure Famous Sages of the Common Law; Together with the Power, And Extent of Customes in Cities, Townes, And Corporations, Concerning the Same: Together with the Determination of the Law, Concerning the Commodity, And Use of Houses, And Their Appurtenances. Whereunto is Added, The Iustices of Assise Their Opinion, Concerning Statute Law for Parishes; And the Power of Iustices of Peace, Churchwardens, And Constables: And to Know What They are to do Concerning Bastards Borne in Their Parishes, Reliefe of the Poore, And Providing for Poore Children, What Remedy for the Same. London: Printed by Tho. Cotes, For William Cooke, 1639. [ii], 45, [1] pp. Quarto (7-1/4" x 5-1/2").

Disbound stab-stitched pamphlet. Moderate toning, light soiling to exterior, light rubbing to extremities, two small stains to foot of title page, which is detached and lightly edgeworn. $950.

* Second and final edition, one of two issues from 1639. A critical review of city life, this rambling essay addresses legal restrictions imposed by building laws, such as the location of windows and drains and the absence of effective laws to reduce urban nuisances, such as smoke, poor drainage and noise. It also questions the relation between the common law and the city laws and customs of London. Turning to social matters, it discusses the indigent, sick and insane, the poor laws and the liabilities and duties of local officials. The "Foure Famous Sages of the Common Law" mentioned in the title are Robert Monson, Edmund Plowden, Sir Christopher Wray and John Manwood. This is a scarce title. Counting both issues, OCLC locates 10 copies of the second edition in North American law libraries. English Short-Title Catalogue S109444. Order This Item

Scarce English Treatise on Bailiffs in a Handsome Riviere Binding

26. Ritson, J[oseph] [1752-1803]. [Frank, Joseph, Editor].

The Office of Bailiff of a Liberty. London: Printed by A. Strahan, 1811. [xv], 80 pp. Octavo (9" x 5-1/2").

Later nineteenth-century straight-grain morocco signed binding by Riviere & Son, gilt frames to boards, gilt spine with raised bands, gilt rules to board edges, gilt inside dentelles, marbled endpapers, all edges gilt. Negligible light rubbing and a few minor nicks to extremities, armorial bookplate of John Crichton-Stuart, 3rd Marquess of Bute, to front pastedown. Moderate toning to text, light foxing to a few leaves. A very handsome copy. $750.

* First edition. Ritson, a former bailiff, was a member of Gray's Inn and the author of several practical and historical works on legal subjects. Holdsworth says his study of bailiffs of a liberty, that is a court officer who executes process, is a "learned antiquarian tract based mainly on the Year Books and mediaeval statutes, with notes of such later statutes as referred to these bailiffs." Crichton-Smith [1847-1900], an extremely wealthy member of the landed gentry who made an additional fortune as an industrialist, was a notable antiquarian, scholar, bibliophile, philanthropist and architectural patron. An Uncommon Treatise on Manorial Courts in a Handsome Riviere Binding

27. Ritson, J[oseph] [1752-1803].

The Jurisdiction of Court Leet: Exemplified in the Articles Which the Jury or Inquest for the King, In That Court, Is Charged and Sworn, And by Law Enjoined, To Inquire of and Present. Together With Approved Precedents. With Great Additions. London: Printed for W. Clarke and Sons, 1816. 166, [iv], [6], 8 pp. Includes 8-page publisher catalogue, following 3 unnumbered pages of publisher advertisements. Octavo (8-1/2" x 5-1/2").

Later nineteenth-century straight-grain morocco signed binding by Riviere & Son, gilt frames to boards, gilt spine with raised bands, gilt rules to board edges, gilt inside dentelles, marbled endpapers, all edges gilt. Negligible light rubbing and a few minor nicks to extremities, armorial bookplate of John Crichton-Stuart, 3rd Marquess of Bute, to front pastedown. Moderate toning to text, light foxing to a few leaves. A handsome copy. $500.

* Third and final edition. This book is valuable because it is more a history of manorial criminal courts than a practical guide. It is especially useful as a guide to Leet jurisdiction in the thirteenth century. Despite its historical orientation, it provides a good sense of their status and rules of procedure at the dawn of the nineteenth century. Ritson, a member of Gray's Inn and, according to Holdsworth, an "eccentric and pedantic antiquary and man of letters" was the author of several practical and historical works on legal subjects. Crichton-Smith [1847-1900], an extremely wealthy member of the landed gentry who made an additional fortune as an industrialist, was a notable antiquarian, scholar, bibliophile, philanthropist and architectural patron. #### [Bound with]

[Ashley, James, Defendant].

[Simons, Henry, Plaintiff].

The Case and Appeal of James Ashley of Bread-Street, London: Addressed to the Publick in General. In Relation to I. The Apprehending Henry Simons, The Polish Jew, On a Warrant Issued Out Against Him for Perjury; II. His Trial, And Conviction of a Capital Misdemeanor, Last Lent-Assizes, Held at Chelmsford for the County of Essex; III. His Second Trial, At the Subsequent Assizes, For the Same Offence, And Surprising Acquittal; IV. An Action Brought, And the Cruel Verdict Obtained, Against the Said James Ashley, And Others. Interspersed Throughout with Many Very Uncommon Particulars. To Which is Prefixed, A Curious Print of the Person and Dress of the Said Henry Simons. London: Printed for, And Published by, The Appellant, 1753. [viii], 47 pp. Text printed in double columns. Etched portrait frontispiece of Simons.

Stab-stitched pamphlets bound into recent cloth, calf lettering piece to spine. Light stains to boards, moderate rubbing to extremities, small scuff to lettering piece, later owner bookplate (of Geoffrey G. Briggs) to front free endpaper. Moderate toning to both pamphlets, left-hand edge of plate, but not image, affected by trimming, light foxing and owner inscription (W. Greenwoods 1811") to title page of The Case, tiny worm hole to lower-right corner of its text block through p. 91. $3,000.

* Only editions, Case and Appeal one of three issues. This was the first instance of a new trial being granted in a criminal case in England. The affair concerned the robbery of gold coins entrusted to Simons by a group of nobles from his home town. The case resulted in six trials, three pamphlets and a great deal of debate in the daily newspapers, much of it Anti-Semitic. The thief appeared to have been Simons's innkeeper, but it later turned out to be James Ashley, who was first convicted, then acquitted, then convicted again. A Scarce Seventeenth-Century Treatise on Duelling

29. Voet, Paul [1619-1667].

De Duellis, Licit & Illicitis, Liber Singularis. Utrecht: Ex Officina Gisberti à Zyll, 1646. [viii], 256 [i.e. 265], [5] pp. 12mo. (5" x 3").

Contemporary vellum with lapped edges. Small cut to front board, spine ends bumped, some wear to corners, vellum beginning to crack through pastedowns, text block a bit loose but secure. Moderate toning to text, later embossed owner signature to front free endpaper, early owner initials to rear pastedown, illegible early owner signature to foot of title page. $650.

* First edition. Voet was an important philosopher, judge and legal scholar who taught at the University of Utrecht. He was also the father of the distinguished legal scholar Johannes Voet [1647-1713]. De Duellis is a study of dueling that examines cases where the practice is legal or illegal. A second edition was published in 1648. Both editions of this work are scarce. OCLC locates 9 copies of the first edition in North America, 2 in law libraries (Columbia, Harvard). "A Very Valuable Treatise on that Very Intricate and Important Subject"

30. Watkins, Charles [d.1808]. Vidal, Robert Studley, Editor.

An Essay Towards the Further Elucidation of the Law of Descents; With an Appendix on the Distribution of the Personal Effects of Intestates. Corrected and Enlarged from the Author's Papers, And Further Augmented with Notes of All the More Recently Adjudged Cases on the Subject, Down to the Present Period. London: Printed for W. Clarke and Sons, 1819. [xvi], 331, [1], [4] pp. Includes 4-page published catalogue, publisher advertisment to verso of half-title. Two fold-out engraved copperplate tables (of descents and consanguinity). Octavo (8-1/2" x 5").

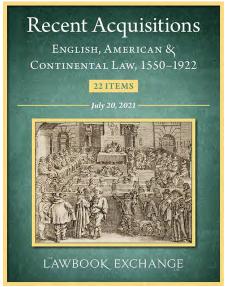

Contemporary calf, blind fillets to boards, lettering piece and blind fillets to spine. Minor nicks and scuffs to boards, moderate rubbing to extremities, light gatoring to spine, small chip to head of spine, joints starting at ends, corners bumped and lightly worn, early owner bookplate to front pastedown. Moderate toning to text, light foxing in places, light soiling to a few leaves, some creasing and edgewear to folding tables. $500.

* Third edition. This is a useful supplement to Chapter 14, Volume II, of Blackstone's Commentaries, "Of Title by Descent". "Mr. Watkins' Essay on Descents is a very valuable treatise on that very intricate and important subject" (Marvin). First published in 1793, this treatise went through four editions, the final in 1837. Marvin, Legal Bibliography 721 (Citing Barton, Modern Precedents in Conveyancing.)
